

For Immediate Release

Contact: Ellen Miles
413 569 1302
413 237 3553
ellen.c.miles@comcast.net

Rotary barbecue cook-off challenge ready for competition

July 21, 2008 The members of the Southwick Rotary Club are ready to host its BBQ cook-off scheduled for Sunday, July 27, at the Southwick Recreation Center, on Powder Road, in Southwick. The challenge starts at 12:00 noon till 6:00 p.m. with judging scheduled for 3:00 p.m.

Bob Fox, chair for the competition, said “we have teams in place including The Cow Pucks, Butts & Bones, Bam Bam’s BBQ, Uncle Danny’s BBQ, Unknown Grillers, Dennis and Dan - “The Gas Boyz”, Jack and Jay, a Texas brisket team, to name a few.

The event is family oriented and admission to the general public is free. In addition to food samplings and beverages, entertainment will be provided by the “Slick Pickers” and “Poppy the Clown.” There will also be a raffle for a new BBQ grille and accompanying products.

Proceeds from the event will support community and youth-oriented Rotary projects.

For more information on the event, contact Bob Fox at 413 569 5962 or Ellen Miles at 413 237 3553.

Southwick Rotary is an international organization with an image of service, fellowship and high ideals, consists of a membership of business and professional people meet Wednesdays at 6:00 p.m. Roma Restaurant, College Highway, Southwick.

-End-

